MATE O' MINE.

We set out together, mate o' mine,
When youth was in its prime,
Life—the path that lay before us,
Life—the hill we had to climb.
We neither of us knew the road,
How long the journey, great the load;
Nor I how deep the debt I owed
To God for mate o' mine!

We set out together, mate o' mine;
We've wended road and hill;
Now it's homeward through the valley
We must wander at God's will,
We neither of us fear the gloam,
Love still shall light the path we roam;
Should you be lost returning Home,
I'll greet thee, mate o' mine!

Ah! Babe o' Mine
With sweetest baby charm.
Sent us from heav'n
To shield from every harm
Guarding its life
From sorrow and strife
Angels watch o'er thee
Sleeping Babe o' Mine

Ah! Babe o' Mine,
Whose love we hold so dear,
God call'd thee,
And no more thy voice we hear.
Lonely our hearts,
Our eyes dimmed with tears,
Some day we'll be together,
Babe o' Mine,
Some day we'll be together
Babe o' Mine.
